VANDERBILT HOUSE.

This ELEGANT PROPERTY, SITUATED on Night street (Laurel), directly opposite the Opera House, and one of the best business locations in the city, is now offered for rent very low. I am compelled to quit business, on account of my wife's health, and a bargain can be had The house is three stories high and is specially adapted to hotel or boarding house use, the rooms being pleasant, well ventilisted and completely finished. The street floor, upon which he bar and billiard rooms are located, is large and well-lighted, and the bar drurges as fine as any in the city. The two pool tables and billiard table are of the very best I will rent all or any portion of the house desired—the bar and billiard rooms separately, with or without the fixures and furniture; the hotel rooms with or without the turniture, or all together, as may be desired, and for any time wanted—long or short lense. I mean business; first comes drat to get the bargain offered. Now is your if to strike A full stock of liquors, wiges and olgars will be sold to the renter if he desires. Reasonable arrangements can be made for payments for sto k purchased if desired. As I leave for Excelsior, Springs on or about July 6th, if the property is not rente previous to that time, application can be made to C. G. Ludwigs, at the store on Main street. This is the one chance of a life t me, and if you want it, all you have to do is to say so quickly.
